The Oceania Cup will take place from 29th October to 1st November 2025 in Nuku'alofa, Tonga. The competition format is a Teams competition with teams representing Melanesia, Micronesia, Polynesia, Australia, New Zealand, Regional Australia, and the Host Member Federation.

The Oceania Cup Selection Panel - Working Group will select the three (3) Pacific Island Regional Teams which will consist of athletes from their Region (Melanesian, Micronesia, Polynesia). The Working Group will also be responsible for selecting Team officials and coaches to the Oceania Cup Pacific Island Regional Teams.

The Working Group will meet virtually via technology to select team. Meetings will take place over the course of the first half of 2025, with the final selection meeting following the 2025 Pacific Mini Games. Members of the Working Group will not be funded to attend the competition.

The Working Group will comply with the Selection Criteria determined by the OAA Council when nominating or selecting an individual or team as the case may be.

The position is a voluntary position and would require the chosen applicant to have the following skills:

- Vast understanding of Pacific Island Athletics and current athletes
- Knowledge of the Qualification systems for World Athletics Series Events
- In depth knowledge of team selection processes
- Completion of the World Athletics Safeguarding Essentials Course

The Oceania Athletics Council will appoint the members of the Working Group and will determine the terms of reference and number of people to serve on the Selection Committee.

Expressions of Interest are due with the OAA office by 31 January 2025.

Members will be notified in February 2025, if they have been successful in being appointed. If you have any questions, please email competitions@oceaniaathletics.com or yvonne@oceaniaathletics.com
